

HEADING OUT TO ENJOY THE FRUITS OF YOUR LABOR TODAY?

BBQs, camping, shopping would be topping your list on Labor Day. We at Way.com would like to remind you about the little things that can make your Labor Day activities safer.

Check if your registration and insurance documents are in order before you set out.

Enter your destination to check for traffic updates.

Put on your seat belt before you rev your engines.

Drive safely and maintain the right speed limit

Designate a driver to avoid DUIs if you feel your revelry got a bit carried away.